Sir:

In response to the December 4, 2002, Office Action, the Applicant respectfully responds as follows, and reconsideration is requested.

REMARKS

The Office Action rejected pending claims 1-9 and 19-35 under 35 USC §102(e) as being anticipated by Vogler (US 2002/0176469 A1). This rejection is respectfully traversed as follows.

In rejection the three pending independent claims 1, 19 and 28, the Office Action states in part:

Regarding claims 1, 19 and 28, Vogler et al. teach a method of performing failure analysis (see pages 1-17) comprising: exciting a gain medium containing molecular fluorine (F₂) having an output beam of 157 nm (see Figs 1A-1b and 2); and directing the output beam (20) onto a semiconductor device to selectively etch away material therefrom (see paragraph [008]).
